

Carson City Historical Society

Foreman-Roberts House and Wungnema House @ November 2008 Special Edition

Greetings from the Carson City Historical Society Announcing - three upcoming events--

Tuesday, November 18 at 6:30 p.m. Ron James, Nevada Historic Preservation Officer, will be lecturing on "Mark Twain and the Comstock Connection." This will be at the Carson City Library, 900 North Roop. Free and open to the public.

at 1:30 pm

Sunday, December 7, our Annual Christmas Party will be held at the home of Chuck and Jo Saulisbury in Dayton, 207 Doolittle Lane, Dayton, Nevada (in the hangar). It will be a potluck with the Historical Society providing the main course. Please call Jo Saulisbury at 246-5570 or Janet Perry at 884-1448 and let one of them know you are coming, and what you are bringing. They will also provide you with some ideas of what is needed for the dinner. Reservations must be in by December 1. Please bring your own drinks, coffee will be provided. If you are providing a dish, please provide serving utensils. And — we encourage you to bring a guest. Directions to Jo's house, Directions are...Go to U.S. 50 east to Dayton, turn right on Main Street, continue on Dayton Valley Road, turn right at Lakes Blvd, turn left at Lakeview Drive, turn right at Doolittle Court, destination will be on right.

*****

Sunday, December 14, noon to 5 p.m. We will have our Victorian Christmas Tour, featuring 10 locations. New on tour this year we will have Governor Colcord's (Nevada's 7th governor--this home served as the Governor's Mansion as there was no state house at that time). Tickets are $10 for Carson City Historical Society members. Come and meet some of the famous people from our past -- Hank Monk, Alf Doten, Abe Lincoln, and Mary Law will be playing the harp at the Bliss Mansion. Tickets are available at the Greenhouse Garden Center, Carson City Convention and Visitors Bureau, White Cat Antiques and Foreman-Roberts House, day of tour. For more information call Dorothy at 882-1805.

