Newsletter for August 2023

by Sue Ballew, President

Welcome to the Carson City Historical Society's August newsletter. Please come and join us for our Ice Cream Social to be held Saturday, August 12 in the Foreman-Roberts House Park from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. David and Friends are playing some wonderful jazz music. You can sit in the shade of the trees, have some wonderful ice cream and cookies and relax. We are having the grand opening of our newest exhibit:

"In Plein Air"

Watercolors by Andrea Hobbs

The "In Plein Air" watercolor art exhibit will be in the Foreman-Roberts House open during the Ice Cream Social Saturday, August 12, from 5:00 to 7:00 pm, and the Foreman-Roberts House will be open on Sundays from 1 to 3 p.m. with the new exhibit.

In Other News...

Donna McLaren led an Eastside tour of older homes and locations, starting at the Vintage Market. More information on future tours will be announced. There were 18 people on the July tour along with Donna McLaren, organizer, and Bernie Allen, historian, for a walk through the historic east side of town. Places visited were Virginia and Truckee Railroad and Depot, the Armory, Carson City's Chinatown and other stops. Donna organizes the tour, and Bernie Allen has a wealth of knowledge about Carson City. His father moved here to work for the Virginia & Truckee Railroad 70 years ago.

The Carson City Historical Society received a grant for FY2023-2024 in the amount of $4,000. This will help with our event planning.

Mark Twain Garden Club

The ladies of the Mark Twain Garden Club have planted a flower garden in the front planter boxes for their project. They are lovely. If you have a chance, come and see the Mark Twain Garden Club's work. Thank you so much

In Memory

A tree has been planted in memory of Paula Cannon. It blossoms in the spring with beautiful white flowers. Liz Cain, our Vice President, coordinated this event along with Parks and Recreation to have this tree planted. There will be a plaque made to go with it in memory of Paula.

The Fence

If you have been by recently, you may have noticed that the white fence around the Foreman-Roberts House has partially come down. The city will be putting up a new fence as soon as they get approval from the Historic Resources Commission. The top photo indicates both sides of the fence were taken down by the city. The bottom photo is right after the fence came down. Travis Legatske moved the fence from the front sidewalk. Thank you Travis for rushing down to take care of the Foreman-Roberts House.
