Three Things to Experience this October

I. CCHS Participates in the "Hallo Wine Walk" Saturday, Oct. 5, 2024

Carson City Historical will again participate in the Carson City Downtown Business Association's (DBA's) Wine Walk, Saturday, Oct. 5, 2024, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The theme for this month's Wine Walk is "Hallo WineWalk," in recognition of Halloween. The Wine Walk presents an opportunity to bring to the public's attention CCHS's exhibits and activities. The DBA recently expanded the district for the monthly Wine Walks northward so that the district now includes the Foreman-Roberts House and its neighbors, the Midtown Marketplace and the Tap Shack. Midtown Marketplace will also be participating in this month's Wine Walk. This is your opportunity to learn about local businesses, enjoy some good wine, and discover the Carson City Historical Society.

For information about participating in the Wine Walk, go to downtowncarson.org/carson-city-wine-walk, where tickets are available one week before the event. The DBA hosts Wine Walks on the first Saturday of every month (with rare exceptions).

II. Historical Society Announces Nevada Day Exhibit All Four Sundays in October Starting Sunday, Oct. 6, 2024

The public is invited to see the Carson City Historical Society's (CCHS) exhibit on the history of Nevada Day. The exhibit is in the Carriage House behind the Foreman-Roberts House Museum, located at 1207 North Carson Street, every Sunday in October through October 27th from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. for a Historic Nevada Day exhibit.

This historic Nevada Day exhibit presents lots of articles and historic photographs dating back to the beginning of the Nevada Day Parade in 1938. It includes introductory material written by Aeryn McQueary, a member of the CCHS Board of Directors.

III. Guest Speaker Mike Shaughnessy

Thursday, October 24, 2024

Carson City Historical Society (CCHS) welcomes guest speaker Mike Shaughnessy on Thursday, October 24, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. for a presentation in the Carriage House behind the Foreman-Roberts House Museum. Mike, a native Nevadan, has lived in Carson City since 1937, and was in the first Nevada Day parade in 1938. Mike was the General Chairman for the parade for 16 years and was proud to be the Grand Marshall in 2013. Upon his retirement from the Nevada Day Committee, Mike was named "Chairman Emeritus" and subsequently became a "Member for Life" of the committee. The talk is free and open to the public. Donations to help the Carson City Historical Society are accepted. Space is limited.
