President's Letter

Spring Greetings from the Carson City Historical Society! 🌸

Dear Members and Friends,

Happy Spring! Carson City is dazzling in her seasonal finery—flowering trees, blooming bushes, and lush greenery make this the perfect time to get outside and celebrate the beauty all around us. We're welcoming the season with a wonderful lineup of events, and we'd love for you to be part of it! Whether you're attending, volunteering, or bringing friends along, there's something for everyone this April.

■ Open House at the Foreman-Roberts House Museum

Sunday, April 13 | 1:00–3:00 PM

Bring the whole family for a charming afternoon of history and hospitality! Enjoy a docent-led tour of the Foreman-Roberts House Museum and the Carriage House, along with light refreshments.

■ Victorian Easter Tea at the Carriage House

Saturday, April 19 | 1:00–3:00 PM

Join us for our Second Victorian Tea in celebration of the Easter season. Our last tea was a delightful success, and we can't wait to welcome you back for another afternoon of conversation, treats, and timeless elegance.

■ Special Lecture: *Carson City: Then and Now

Sunday, April 27 | 1:00–3:00 PM

Brewery Arts Center Grand Ballroom

We're honored to host local historian Jed Block for this fascinating look at our city's past and present. This engaging talk also serves as a fundraiser for the Historical Society. Thank you, Jed, for your continued generosity and passion!

We hope you'll join us for one—or all!—of these lovely events. Spring is the perfect time to reconnect with our city's rich history and each other.

With warmest regards,
Liz Cain

presents

CARSON CITY: THEN AND NOW At the Brewery Arts Center Grand Ballroom

our guest speaker

JED BLOCK

Carson City Historian & Preservation Advocate

Due to overwhelming demand, the Carson City Historical Society, in partnership with the Brewery Arts Center, is pleased to present an encore of Jed Block's captivating lecture, Carson City: Then & Now. This special event will take place on Sunday, April 27, 2025, at 1:00 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Brewery Arts Center, located at 449 W. King St., Carson City.

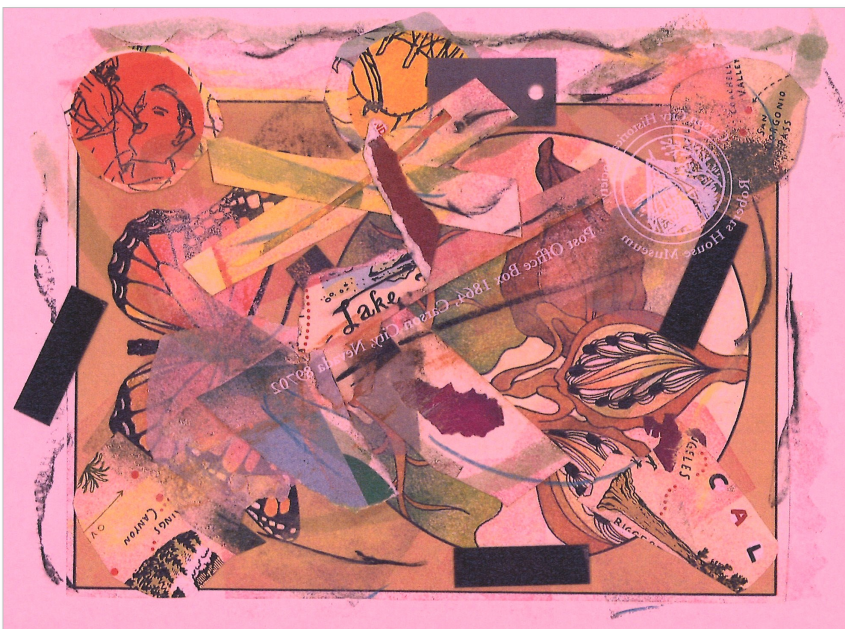

A Carson City native and devoted historian, Block has spent over two decades researching and documenting the city's rich past. Renowned for his expertise in the Capital City's history, he brings its stories to life, inspiring a deeper appreciation for historic preservation. His extensive collection of historic photographs and meticulous research have made Carson City: Then & Now a local favorite, offering a fascinating look at the city's lost landmarks and evolving landscape.

Block's passion for history began more than 20 years ago while researching a redevelopment project, igniting a lifelong dedication to preserving and sharing Carson City's heritage. He currently serves on the Carson City Historic Resources Commission, where he previously held the role of Chairman, and continues to advocate for the protection of the city's historical treasures.

This is a ticketed event with an admission fee of $15. Tickets are available for purchase on the Brewery Arts Center website, BreweryArts.org, or scan the QR code to the right. For inquiries, please contact the Carson City Historical Society at CarsonCityHistoricalSociety@gmail.com or call Liz Cain at 775-315-9111.
